First Purple Martins Are Reported Here

First sighting of purple martins for the 1972 season was reported Wednesday, Feb. 16, by Mrs. Robert Cox of Rosston Rd. Mrs. Earl O'Neal was second, reporting martins arrived at her boxes Thursday, Feb. 17.

Your editor, with two new aluminum boxes replacing his old redwoods last year, checked his "Back 40" location Thursday afternoon and found no arrivals. He has been keeping a record of arrivals and departures from his boxes for the last nine years.

In 1969 C. H. Wilson of Fulton set a new state record on reporting martins at his boxes at 9:30 a.m. Feb. 9. Roy Martin of Hope almost tied him with a sighting at 4:15 p.m. the same day. Mine didn't arrive until Feb. 22 in 1969.

Martins feed on insects gathered in flight, so their migration dates depend on the bug supply. The birds spend four months in the United States, four months in South America, and four months on the roundtrip, their route following the Mexican and Central American coastline.

Here is the nine-year record of arrivals and departures from my particular boxes, which table will be repeated when my martins arrive:

1963	March 21	July 17
1964	March 14	July 4
1965	March 6	July 12
1966	March 15	July 4
1967	March 29	July 15
1968	March 18	July 4
1969	Feb. 22	July 5
1970	Feb. 10	July 3
1971	Feb. 26	July 11

Action Is Delayed

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — Circuit Court Judge John Goodson said Thursday night he did not know when he might take action against a newspaper editor who disregarded his order prohibiting publication of a jury verdict in a rape case.

Goodson said he still had pending some related cases he did not want to jeopardize at present but in due time he would "meet the situation head on."

Harry Wood, executive editor of the Texarkana Gazette, said that Goodson ordered Gazette reporter Tom Ayres at the conclusion of a rape trial Wednesday not to publish the verdict in Thursday morning's paper.

Wood said he contacted the judge and was told that he could expect to go to jail if the verdict was published.

Goodson said he acted because he had set a trial Thursday for a defendant accused of attacking the girl who was the prosecuting witness in Wednesday's trial.

President Stops in Hawaii Enroute to Visit to China

By FRANK CORMIER
Associated Press Writer
HONOLULU (AP) — President Nixon, tarrying here en route to his China summit talks, is likely to meet Chairman Mao Tse-tung in the picturesque resort city of Hangchow.

American sources said this seemed a logical site for a Nixon-Mao conference since Hangchow, the next-to-last stop on the President's China itinerary, is a favored retreat of the 78-year-old Communist leader.

A Hangchow meeting would further underscore the apparent political eclipse of Mao inasmuch as Nixon and Premier Chou En-lai are expected to dispose of serious negotiations in Peking before the American visitor sees Hangchow.

The President and Mrs. Nixon, who arrived Thursday afternoon following a 10-hour non-stop flight from Washington, will remain in Hawaii until Saturday afternoon. Then they will fly to Guam for an overnight stay before proceeding to Shanghai and Peking.

A major reason for the Hawaii stopover was to allow

FIREBRAND BERNADETTE DEVLIN, the youngest member of the British Parliament, is still in the thick of the bloody strife in Northern Ireland.

British Make Offer to Striking Miners

LONDON (AP) — The coal strike inquiry board today offered Britain's 280,000 striking coal miners pay increases which went far toward meeting their demands.

Leaders of the national Union of Mineworkers went into a huddle to consider whether to accept the offer and end the six-week-old strike that threatens to paralyze British industry by the end of the month.

The miners' employers, the National Coal Board, immediately accepted the settlement terms proposed by the three-man commission headed by Lord Wilberforce, a former High Court judge.

The tribunal recommended increases ranging from $11.70 to $15.60 a week. The miners, whose pay varies between $48.40 and $74.10, had demanded $15.60, while the coal board offered $7.80.

The inquiry board said it was offering considerably more than the board offered because this was "in the interests of the nation as a whole."

It recommended that the raises be retroactive to Nov. 1 and that the scale prevail for 18 months from then.

The government warned, meanwhile, that drastic new power cuts will hit homes and factories next Wednesday whatever the miners decide.

Officials said the worst blackouts since the World War II Blitz would probably last only a short time if the miners go back to work next week. But this seemed unlikely. If the strike leaders recommend acceptance of the offer, the miners probably will vote on it in a secret ballot, and this could take a week.

Dwindling coal stocks have forced electric generating plants to ration output and withhold power from homes for up to 12 hours a day.

Bryant May Get a Foe

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Pulaski County Clerk Jerome Climer said Thursday he might run for the office of secretary of state this year.

Climer, 31, a Republican, was appointed clerk in December of 1970 by former Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller.

Kelly Bryant, a Democrat, is secretary of state and has not said whether he will seek reelection.

the Nixons to adjust gradually to the physical and psychological effects of traveling at jetspeed through time zones.

Secretary of State William P. Rogers, who was with them aboard the presidential plane, said in response to newsmen's questions that the U.S. government has no confirmation of a report that Le Duc Tho, the Hanoi official who conducted secret negotiations with presidential adviser Henry A. Kissinger, would arrive in Peking a day before Nixon.

Rogers offered no support for speculation that the North Vietnamese official would be meeting with Nixon or other Americans in Peking.

Several thousand persons, some waving "Aloha" banners, greeted the President and Mrs. Nixon at Kaneohe Marine Air Station.

The Nixons borrowed the 17-room home of Brig. Gen. Victor Armstrong, a brigade commander. The spacious frame dwelling on the Kaneohe base sits on a hilltop and commands a spectacular view of the Pacific and nearby natural stone attractions such as Pyramid Rock and Chinaman's Hat.

The President worked during most of the flight from Washington, conferring on his China agenda with Rogers and Kissinger, a principle architect of the historic mission.

Kissinger spent some 2½ hours alone with the chief executive while Rogers was with Nixon for less than an hour. Another measure of Kissinger's paramount influence in the China preparations: He was quartered next door to Nixon while Rogers was housed two doors away.

Chatting with reporters aboard their plane shortly after leaving Washington, the President and Mrs. Nixon were ebullient.

"Isn't this exciting?" exclaimed the First Lady.

Nixon asserted that he needed no advance practice with chopsticks but, pointing to his wife, said, "She does."

The President cautioned reporters to treat Chinese wine with respect.

"Remember," he said, "that Chinese wine is like brandy—it's not 12 per cent."

Antipoverty Bill Sent to Nixon

By JOHN BECKLER
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House, ignoring threats of another presidential veto, has passed a two-year, $5.3-billion extension of the antipoverty program.

President Nixon vetoed a similar bill last December, and the House went only part way to meet his objections. Rep. Albert H. Quie, R-Minn., who led the opposition to the bill Thursday, said another veto is certain.

The bill, passed 234 to 127, now goes to the Senate, which also has shown little inclination to back down from the earlier version of the legislation.

The main concession by the House to Nixon's views was elimination of a costly new child-development program it had included in the previous bill.

However, as a substitute the House proposed a big increase in funds for Head Start, which provides educational, nutritional and health services for poor children. The bill would authorize $500 million for the program this year instead of the $376 million so far appropriated, and $1 billion next year instead of the $384 million Nixon has budgeted.

Republicans, who failed in an attempt to cut back to the budget levels, said the House was holding out false promises to the poor by authorizing a sum that will never be appropriated or spent.

Crime Commissioner Now a Wanted Man

DALLAS (AP) — The chairman of the Dallas Crime Commission became a wanted man today following his indictment by a grand jury the previous day on two embezzlement counts.

"He's a wanted man," said Criminal Warrants Deputy Joe Pearce after the man who has been known as John McKee dropped out of sight when deputies went to arrest him following the indictment.

McKee's lawyer, M. R. Irion, who said that McKee would call a news conference to explain his position next week, said today: "I knew where he was Wednesday morning but I don't know where he is now."

After a stake-out through the night at McKee's rambling home in East Dallas, Dallas County authorities issued a bulletin for his arrest and a description of his late-model Lincoln.

McKee, accused of being a 1929 Navy deserter named James Kell Zullinger, has lived under a false name for more than 40 years, according to a joint statement issued by Dallas Police Chief Frank Dyson and Dist. Atty. Henry Wade just a week ago.

McKee denied the charges, calling them ridiculous, and threatened suit for libel. He has avoided meeting newsmen.

He was accused in the grand jury indictment Thursday of embezzling a total of $6,722 from Lee Lockwood of Waco, who heads Scottish Rite Masonry in Texas.

The case was assigned to 4th Criminal District Court and Judge John Mead set bond of $5,000 on each count.

Hope Firm Involved in $102,800 Suit

Nashville—A $102,800 civil suit has been filed in Howard County Circuit Court as result of a fatal car-truck accident in December.

Fannie L. Morgan, administratrix of the estate of the late J.K.R. Morgan, filed suit against Joseph D. Kesterson of Gillham and M&M Leasing Co. of Hope.

The suit alleges Kesterson and M&M Leasing Co. were guilty of negligence in the accident.

The December 15 accident took the lives of two Nashville pastors, the Rev. J.K.R. Morgan of the New Light CME Church and the Rev. J.N. Harris, presiding elder of the CME district.

The accident occurred when a car driven by the Rev. Morgan turned left off Highway 24 east, just inside Hempstead County, and collided with a pickup driven by Kesterson, according to State Trooper Jerry Reed.

Shreveport Had Scare

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP) — Police said a flurry of excitement and complications resulting from a traffic accident involving a truck carrying some radioactive material, at first feared leaking, ended early today when it was determined there was no radioactive leakage.

It started Thursday night when a car collided with the truck on a state highway about 25 miles south of Shreveport, and the truck overturned. Three elderly women in the car were critically injured, officers said.

State Police said at first it was feared that there had been damage to a wooden crate containing a lead cylinder with class two radio active material.

The area was blocked off to traffic. A freight train that had to go through the area was stopped. A crew from nearby Barksdale Air Force Base was called in to check for radioactivity. Live electric wires knocked down and resting on the truck had to be removed.

But just before 1 a.m. today, The Barksdale crew reported there was no damage to the crate with the radioactive material and no contamination in the area.

The driver of the truck was not seriously injured, officers said.

Patriotism Subject of Essay Contest

"Patriotism: Past and Present" is the subject of this year's Americanism Essay Contest sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary. All Junior and Senior High School students may enter the contest between now and March 15.

The essay must be original, not over 1,000 words or less than 500, typed on only one side of the paper, and the heading should read "Americanism Essay Contest, sponsored by The American Legion Auxiliary, Department of Arkansas."

The essay will be judged on: neatness, form, and subject matter. The following information should be put on the first page of the essay: Name, Address, School, Age, Grade, Subject of Essay.

American Legion Auxiliary Units throughout the state will announce the Unit Awards. Only the winning Essay from each Unit is to be sent to the Department Americanism Chairman. The Department Award is $25.

Those entering the contest locally should mail entries to: Mrs. Vance Marcum, Americanism Chairman, Spring Hill Road, Hope, Ark. 71801. The local Unit Award is the Americanism Essay Medal.

U.S. Admits Loss of 7 Planes in Raids

The battle scene covers all of Indochina. North Vietnamese have pushed westward in Laos and control most of eastern Cambodia through which the still vital Ho Chi Minh Trail runs.

By GEORGE ESPEY
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command today announced the loss of seven more planes in the Indochina war, including three shot down during the heavy raids on North Vietnam this week, a spotter plane in Cambodia and three others between Feb. 4 and Feb. 13.

All six fliers aboard the planes lost in North Vietnam were missing and three crewmen were killed and one was injured in the other crashes.

While the command admitted three losses during the attacks north of the demilitarized zone Wednesday and Thursday, North Vietnam claimed its forces shot down seven of the U.S. raiders, damaged several others and killed or captured a number of pilots.

The plane losses over the North—two Air Force F4 Phantoms and an F105—were the heaviest since three jets were shot down during the last heavy raids on North Vietnam Dec. 26-30.

Pilots reported about 35 missiles were fired at them. The three planes downed were hit by the Soviet-built SAMs in an area less than 15 miles above the DMZ, the command said.

Hughes Back in Hiding in Nicaragua

By CHARLES GREEN
Associated Press Writer

MANAGUA, Nicaragua (AP) — Howard Hughes was presumably holed up today on the tightly guarded eighth floor of Managua's Intercontinental Hotel, and a spokesman in the United States said he would remain in the Central American country indefinitely.

Both President Anastasio Somoza's office and Hughes spokesmen in the United States confirmed that the eccentric billionaire flew to Managua Thursday after 15 months living in seclusion in a hotel in Nassau.

In Las Vegas a spokesman for the Hughes Tool Co. said Hughes' stay in Nicaragua was indefinite—"we aren't saying how long he'll be there, but 'indefinite' could indicate a certain degree of permanence." He added that Hughes is considering investments in the country and "considers the economic and political situation good."

mian officials over work permits for the staff that insulates him from physical contact with the outside world. He'll have no such trouble in Nicaragua, which is run by the oldest and one of the most secure dictatorships in Latin America.

"This was not a sudden thing," said another Hughes Tool source in Las Vegas. "Hughes did not just fly out of the Bahamas at the last moment with no real idea of where he was going. Hughes owns properties in Nicaragua and is considering further investments."

He added that Nicaragua is now the base of Hughes' operations, and that the 66-year-old industrialist almost certainly will not return to the Bahamas.

U.S. Ambassador Turner Shelton told a reporter that two Hughes aides arrived Wednesday and made arrangements to rent all 17 rooms on the next to the top floor of the Intercontinental, which is on a bluff overlooking Managua.

Hotel officials refused Thursday night to say if Hughes was there or even to acknowledge that the suddenly inaccessible eighth floor was reserved for Hughes and his staff. The elevators were disconnected to that floor, and the fire doors were sealed.

Hughes' flight came while court hearings were in progress in New York on the purported autobiography of Hughes written by Clifford Irving, a book Time magazine has called a hoax. A spokesman for U.S. Atty. Whitney North Seymour Jr. declined to say whether a subpoena had been issued for Hughes to appear before the grand jury or whether any statements were sought from him while he was in the Bahamas.

Expects Okay on Gas Pipeline

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — W. R. "Witt" Stephens, president and chairman of the board of Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co., said Thursday he expected the Federal Power Commission to approve within the "next few days" approval of Arkla's application to build a gas pipeline to the Anadarko Basin in Texas and Oklahoma.

Stephens said drilling had already begun in the basin and some gas already is being produced.

"Arkla stands to lose a lot of gas already purchased on speculation of the pipeline approval unless we get the go ahead by March 1," Stephens said.

He added the pipeline was necessary to supply Arkansas with enough gas to attract new industry to the state. A gas shortage has caused Arkla to curtail gas deliveries to a number of industries in the state.

Man Killed Near Earle

EARLE, Ark. (AP) — Arthur R. Webb, 73, of Earle was killed Thursday when the car in which he was riding collided with a truck 11 miles south of here at the junction of U.S. 79 and Arkansas 148.

State Police said Clinton Adams, 45, of Widener, driver of the truck, and Tom Hodges, 64, of Earle, driver of the car, were hospitalized at Memphis in serious condition.

9 Million Alcoholics Costly

By JOHN STOWELL
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A new government report today branded alcohol the nation's most-abused drug, and said alcoholism afflicts more than 9 million persons and drains the economy of $15 billion a year.

In its first special report to Congress on alcohol and health, the Department of Health, Education and Welfare does not recommend new legislative action but pledges a comprehensive federal effort to unify treatment, rehabilitation and prevention programs.

HEW's National Institute on Alcohol and Alcoholism was expected to disclose at a news conference a nationwide advertising campaign, utilizing free public-service announcements, to draw attention to what has been described as "the most treatable untreated illness."

"Alcoholism is one of the most tragic, destructive and costly illnesses in the nation today," HEW Secretary Elliott L.

Richardson said in a letter to House Speaker Carl Albert. "Directly or indirectly, alcohol-related problems affect the lives of tens of millions of men, women and children."

The 121-page report estimates that about 9.6 million Americans are alcoholics or alcohol abusers, out of the 95 million who consume a nationwide per-capita average of 30.3 gallons of liquor, wine and beer each year.

Dr. Morris E. Chafetz, director of the alcoholism institute, said abuse "in one sense, is present any time a person becomes drunk." Alcoholism occurs when a person needs drink in increasing doses, and shows specified withdrawal symptoms when he cannot get it.

The report said drinking is linked to one-third of all homicides and one-half of all traffic deaths, or 28,000 in a recent year. The ratio of highway carnage is even higher among youths aged 16 to 24, it added.

Alcoholism can cut 10 to 12 years off an imbibor's life, the report said, while draining the economy of $10 billion annually in lost work time, $2 billion for health and welfare services and $3 billion in property damage, medical expenses and other costs.

Criminal penalties are not the answer to curb drinking abuses, the report said, pointing to the fact that one-half of all arrests reported each year concern public intoxication, drunken driving, disorderly conduct and vagrancy.

"Alcoholism is not a crime," it said. "It is an illness or disease which requires rehabilitation through a broad range of health and social services."

Current treatment and rehabilitation is often fragmented, it said, with many communities relying on detoxification centers which "duplicate the 'revolving door' syndrome long associated with repeated incarceration, rather than providing for the rehabilitation of alcohol abusers and alcoholic persons."

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The California Supreme Court has ruled that the death penalty is unconstitutional, one of the court's seven jurists said today.

The decision affects 100 men and five women under sentence of death in the state's prisons.

They include Sirhan B. Sirhan, convicted slayer of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy and Charles Manson, convicted in the Sharon Tate murders.

Several states have outlawed the death penalty through legislative action, but no state supreme court has ruled on it previously.

On Nov. 18, 1966, the California high court ruled that juries in the state can decide constitutionally under their own discretion whether the punishment for murder shall be death or life imprisonment.

That decision was returned on an appeal which had stayed all executions since Nov. 14, 1967.

Nobody Knows Where Rates of Interest Are Headed

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — Nobody seems to be sure where interest rates are headed. And while that in itself is concern enough for economy watchers, the suggested implications are even more interesting. Among them:

1. If confusion exists about the future of interest rates to the degree it does, it means that our understanding of economic conditions—past, present and future—despite masses of data, is probably as imperfect as it was 20 years ago.
2. An inability to foresee the future of interest rates with more clarity means that a negative element of uncertainty exists in the stock market. Experience shows that an uncertain market seldom forges ahead.

The uncertainty and confusion exists because of varying interpretations concerning the influence on financial markets of big federal budget deficits expected in this fiscal year and next.

Many analysts and economists are convinced that the deficits will rekindle inflation and higher interest rates. At the other extreme are analysts who accuse their brethren of misreading the message of the statistics.

Those who foresee upward pressures on prices also are forecasting a rise to 9 per cent or so for long-term corporate bonds, which now yield a bit more than 7 per cent.

However, the confusion becomes evident when some of the same forecasters are also looking for big gains on the stock market. While this is possible, history shows that periods of high interest rates correspond to depressed stock prices.

Says Eastman Dillon, the securities house: "We are astonished, therefore, that many of the same people who look for sharply higher long-term rates remain fully invested in equities."

Eastman Dillon, incidentally, believes that rates won't rise as sharply as many forecasters expect, mainly because the economy is now operating far below capacity, with considerable unemployed labor and capital.

Before inflation in prices or interest rates sets in, Eastman Dillon and many other analysts believe, any spur to the economy through deficit spending must first absorb unused capital and labor.

But other observers aren't as certain. Even the chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, Arthur F. Burns, has shown some uncertainty, as indicated by the wording of his testimony before the Joint Economic Committee of Congress.

"It would not be surprising," said the man who perhaps has least reason of any to be surprised by interest rate changes, "to see short-term interest rates rise somewhat ...."

Busing Funeral Is Planned at Memphis

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — What is billed as a nationwide weekend of mourning for the death of neighborhood schools begins today in Memphis when a lawyer announces how possible busing in Memphis, the nation's 10th largest school system, will be opposed.

Mrs. Sam Saed, spokesman for an amalgam of local anti-busing groups, said lawyer Charles Black would reveal a so far untried legal attack on busing.

Mrs. Saed said a Richmond, Va., group—Save Our Schools—has designated Saturday for a series of marches and demonstrations around the nation against busing.

One plan would involve minimal busing, but the other would require busing extensive enough to result in 30 per cent minority race representation in each of the 150 schools in the city.

McRae said this week he expects to hold a full-scale hearing of up to three weeks, starting March 20 or March 28.

The NAACP Legal Defense and Education Fund is drawing a third plan. In its suit against the school board, the fund demands maximum busing.

Memphis schools now have no buses. The school board estimates it would cost up to $19 million to acquire and maintain a fleet large enough to transport one-half of the school population daily.

Equalization Board Is Discussed

The Public Relations & Communications Subcommittee of the Citizens Committee For Better Quality Schools met Wednesday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donal Parker.

Also attending the meeting were Vice-Chairman Tom Buchholzer, Secretary Mrs. Troy Bass, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Rowland, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lee Arrington, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Worthing, Mrs. Myrtle Primus, Mrs. Rose Marie Shirey and Mrs. Nancy Morrison.

In the committee's meeting of February 9, questions were asked concerning the County Equalization Board. Answers to some of the questions were answered from material secured from the County Courthouse:

the month of August each year on call by the county judge; board members are paid $15.00 per day, plus 10c per mile for traveling and meetings are held in the little courtroom on the first floor of the courthouse.

Qualifications to be a member of the board require persons to be a qualified elector of the county, be a real estate owner and also be familiar with property values in the county.

Information from the Assessor's Handbook, published by the Assessment Coordination Department of the Arkansas Public Service Commission, No. 84-707, Equalization of assessments - Rules to be observed:

Immediately after the assessor files his report of the assessment of real and personal property in the office of the clerk of the county court as by law required, said clerk shall lay said report of the assessment before the Equalization Board, and said board shall proceed to equalize the assessed valuation thereof; and for that purpose the board shall observe the following rules:

- (1) It shall raise or lower the valuation of any property to such figures as in the opinion of the board will bring about a complete equalization.

- (2) In each instance where the board shall raise the valuation of any property it shall immediately thereupon notify the owner or his agent, by first class mail, of such increase. Provided, all persons present before the board, in person or by agent, at the time such increase is ordered and are there so notified shall not be entitled to further notice.
- (3) Said notice shall state the valuation returned by the assessor and that fixed by the board, and shall advise the owner or his agent that he may, in person, by agent, petition or letter, apply for and receive consideration or hearing by or before said board, provided such application shall be made on or before the first Saturday next preceding the third Monday in September.

No. 84-708, Application by property owner for adjustment of assessment appeal, will be discussed at the next subcommittee meeting and reported.

The next meeting of the Subcommittee will be Wednesday, February 23 at 7 p.m. in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lee Arrington at Oakhaven.

Rural Development Bill Fight

By CARL C. CRAFT
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A multibillion-dollar bill aimed at ending migration from the countryside to the nation's crowded cities is expected to prompt a fierce political fight in Congress next week.

W.R. Poage, chairman of the House Agriculture Committee and chief sponsor of the measure, says it will "enable rural America to offer living conditions and employment opportunities adequate to impede the steady flow of rural Americans to our nation's large population centers."

rural areas, credit services of the Farmers Home Administration would be expanded, and there would be more emphasis on community development and environmental phases of the Agriculture Department's small-watershed and resource-conservation programs.

In his report to the House, Poage said it is "obvious that additional capital must be put to work in a wise manner if we are to expect to upgrade life in rural America."

The committee, approving the bill 32 to 4, rejected President Nixon's revenue-sharing plan 16 to 4 and defeated Secretary of Agriculture Earl L. Butz' credit-sharing proposal 16 to 5.

Instead of "creating a new federal bureaucracy," Poage said, the committee decided to expand the roles of existing agencies: the FHA and the Soil Conservation Service.

But Belcher told the House "the federal government is in no position to grant anything but a share of a $39-billion deficit."

The main target of the strikes were the 130mm guns, which have a range of more than 16 miles and are the most powerful North Vietnam has. The command said they had been moved into the DMZ region for the first time in the war.

Cool Weather for Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The forecast is for cooler temperatures and no precipitation throughout the weekend for Arkansas.

The cold front that passed through the state Thursday and Thursday night dropping temperatures was located over the eastern Great Lakes and in East Tennessee and Central Alabama Friday morning.

Controlling Arkansas' weather picture for the next few days is a large high pressure ridge of cool dry air, extending from Central Texas north in Southern Canada.

The lows tonight will be in the mid 20s to mid 30s and the highs Saturday in the lower 50s to lower 60s.

Overnight lows were Fayetteville, 32; Harrison, 35; Jonesboro, 35; Pine Bluff, 40; Texarkana, 40; El Dorado, 34; Memphis, 37; Little Rock, 35 and Fort Smith, 35.

Suit Filed to Void Parade

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A lawsuit was filed Thursday in U.S. District Court here in an attempt to void Pine Bluff's parade ordinance.

The suit, filed by lawyer John W. Walker of Little Rock on behalf of officials of the Arkansas AM&N Student Government Association, also asks that city officials be ordered not to harass officers of the AM&N SGA.

Students of the predominantly black Pine Bluff college had held demonstrations in Pine Bluff protesting a scheduled July 1 merger into the University of Arkansas.

The demonstrations have been peaceful.

Warnock Would Help AM&N

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — John Norman Warnock of Camden volunteered Thursday to help keep Arkansas AM&N College at Pine Bluff "a racially identified (black) institution."

Warnock, a spokesman for segregationist causes, delivered to news media a copy of a letter he had written to Dr. Lawrence A. Davis, president of Arkansas AM&N.

His letter suggested that blacks fight the proposed merger of AM&N into the University of Arkansas by circulating petitions for an initiated act to repeal legislation authorizing the merger.

Warnock, who is a lawyer, offered to prepare without charge a referendum petition to put the matter to a vote on collection of sufficient signatures.

Spotlight On Patriotism

"Spotlight on Patriotic Action" was the theme of the program for the American Legion Auxiliary, Leslie Huddleston Unit 12, when it met in the home of the president, Mrs. Joe Jones, on Tuesday, February 15. Junior members, Patsy Burch, Debbie Starkey, and Rebecca Stuart, presented it.

The Lord's Prayer was said in unison before the opening ritual was conducted. Mrs. Charles Taylor, Membership Chairman, reported a total of 156 memberships received, which is one over the quota. The Americanism Essay Contest was announced for Junior and Senior High School students who may obtain rules and other information from Mrs. Vance Marcum, Americanism Chairman. It was announced that the Auxiliary and the Legion will have a joint meeting February 29 at the Douglas Building.

Patriotic red, white, and blue were used for the napkins and the poppy arrangement in the dining area, where cherry tarts and coffee were served to ten.

Luncheon For Miss James

Miss Darla James, bride-elect of Jerry Irby, was feted with a luncheon on Wednesday, February 16, in the home of Mrs. George Wright, Sr. with Mrs. J. B. Martin, Mrs. Ted Maryman, and Mrs. Clyde Fouse, co-hostesses.

Miss James pinned a pink corsage to her navy tulle dress, and her mother, Mrs. Jim James, and her grandmother, Mrs. Robert Looney of Holly Springs also received corsages. Pink carnations centered the quartet tables, where the three-course luncheon was served to 16. They included Mrs. Calvin Blake of Sheridan and Mrs. James Turley of Nashville. A gift of silver was presented to the honoree by the hostesses.

OVEN POT ROAST WITH VEGETABLES

1 can (15 ounces) special tomato sauce
1 1/2 cups dry white wine
1 cup water
2 cloves garlic, minced
2 beef bouillon cubes, crumbled
1 bay leaf
1/2 teaspoon thyme
1/4 teaspoon pepper
5-pound boneless beef rump roast
8 to 10 small whole white onions, peeled
3 to 4 carrots, pared and thickly sliced
1/2 pound small fresh mushrooms
4 tablespoons flour
1/4 cup cold water
Hot cooked noodles

In a large heavy saucepot (about 5 quarts) mix together the tomato sauce, wine, 1 cup water, garlic, bouillon cubes, bay leaf, thyme and pepper. Place roast in saucepot; cover. Bake in a 300-degree oven for 2 hours; add onions, carrots and mushrooms; bake until meat and vegetables are fork-tender — about 1 hour longer.

Remove roast and vegetables, discarding bay leaf, to warm platter and keep warm.

There should be no more than a saucetop of fat on the liquid in the saucepot; if there is more, skim off excess. Measure liquid and if there is less than 1 quart, add broth to make this amount; if there is more than 1 quart liquid, boil it until it is reduced to this amount.

In a small mixing bowl, whisk together flour and 1/4 cup cold water until smooth; gradually whisk in 1 cup of the hot liquid in saucepot, keeping smooth; return to saucepot. Cook over moderate heat, stirring constantly, until thickened. Serve meat and vegetables with noodles; pass gravy. Makes 8 to 10 servings.
Note: If any meat is leftover, refrigerate. It will be delicious sliced cold and used in sandwiches.

Television and Radio

NEW YORK (AP) — Flip Wilson wants his guest stars to look good and helps them show off their talent. That makes NBC's "Flip Wilson Show" on Thursday nights about the best showcase in television and Wilson the most artful host.

Guest stars this week included the comedy team of Jerry Stiller and Anne Meara, not exactly strangers to the home screens although they have never been able to demonstrate their talents strongly.

Wilson wisely gave them their heads Thursday night, and in the process looked good, too. Miss Meara proved herself to be an excellent sketch actress working with Alan King through his assorted comedy hours last season and this. She works even better with her husband, Jerry Stiller, whose comedy style is less bombastic.

This week their guest-star turn was a sketch about a computer-date in which an Irish girl and a Jewish boy are matched. It managed to be droll and still pack an interesting editorial punch on mutual understanding among people of different backgrounds.

In a sketch about two reluctant prize fighters, Flip was the straight man for Stiller and Miss Meara.

It was one of the brightest hours of the season.

Robin Strasser, who created the role of Rachel Clark in the daytime series, "Another World," on NBC and played it for over four years, quit the show more than three months ago. Her husband, Laurence Luckinbill, is doing well in films and TV commercials and Miss Strasser just didn't want to work for awhile.

Her departure resulted in the usual outpouring of anguished mail from the viewers that follows recasting of a favorite character. Actors and actresses constantly come and go in the daytime serials and it is only when a long-time favorite is replaced that a loud, collective scream is heard from the ladies at home.

Now Robin Strasser has returned to "Another World" in the same part. What makes all the outcry so unusual is that Rachel Clark is almost a villain.

"The role was too important to write out," said Paul Rauch, producer of the series. "We had so heavy stuff coming up involving Rachel and we figured Robin was about the only one who could handle it. So we persuaded her."

Miss Strasser said the offer to go back was just too good to turn down—proving that villainy occasionally pays off handsomely.

Church Leaders Back China Trip

By GEORGE W. CORNELL

AP Religion Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — After urging such a step for years, leaders of most major churches are firmly behind President Nixon in his trip to Communist China. They say it can strengthen the cause of world peace.

"He has our prayers," says the Rev. Dr. Robert J. Marshall, president of the Lutheran Church in America, voicing hope that the two nations may be at a turning point toward growth in mutual understanding instead of belligerence.

Similar reactions have come from many other religious leaders, who have long advocated opening doors of communication with China, often being sharply denounced for it in the past by critics.

At the same time, some American religious elements strongly oppose the trip.

"A great disaster for the free world," says the Rev. Carl McIntire, a Collingswood, N.J., radio preacher, who for months has been organizing rallies in various cities to protest the mission.

Calling the new approach a result of a presidential "policy of retreat, appeasement and soft talk of peace," he says: "Yalta was a surrender. Potsdam was a defeat. Peking will be a disaster."

A group of smaller denominations, the American Council of Christian Churches, also has opposed the visit with "the murderous rulers of Red China."

From a different angle, the Rev. Richard L. Riseling, an American Baptist international affairs official, claims the trip's aim is to "defuse the peace movement in this country" and to use in Nixon's re-election campaign.

A conservative Roman Catholic weekly, Twin Circle, also has criticized the trip, saying it signals accommodation with Chinese communism which will "damage America's image in Asia" and make the years ahead "fraught with setbacks and sorrows."

But leaders of the mainline religious denominations have widely hailed the trip, not only as a new chance for easing tensions with China, but possibly contributing to settlement of the Vietnam war.

Pope Paul VI has hailed the trip as "something big and new ... that could in no small way change the face of the earth."

Dr. Cynthia Wedel, president of the National Council of Churches, including most major Protestant and Orthodox denominations, has commended the President for his "initiative toward normalizing" relations with China.

Daytona Race Marred by Death

By HUBERT MIZELL
Associated Press Sports Writer
DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — "Every time I race past that spot," said stock car hero Bobby Allison, "I'll remember it ... that's where my pal Friday Hassler got it."

ness is risky. Sometimes, folks get killed. But you never get used to it."

Hassler, a 36-year-old Tennessee with four sons, was smashed to death in one of Thursday's 125-mile qualifying race for Sunday's $178,000 Daytona 500.

His wife, Joannie, was amid the horrified crowd of 40,000. A blowout on the Dodge driven by David Boggs of Morrisville, N.C., triggered a deadly chain reaction that gobbled up Hassler's car and a dozen more.

Allison buzzed to victory in the afternoon's second 125-miler, but said, "I was thinking about ole Friday, especially when I raced past the spot where he was killed. I was winning, but I felt sick inside."

Bobby Isaac captured the event that claimed Hassler's life, covering 50 laps at the slowed-down speed of 127 miles an hour.

Tate Team Takes 3rd in State Tourney

At the State A.A.U. Junior Olympic Boys Basketball Championship last week in North Little Rock, Hope was well represented with one Midget Division team winning third place.

Three Hope teams traveled to the tournament—Farm Bureau and Tate Motor Co. in the Midget Division (11 years and under) and Moore Brothers in the Junior Division (12 and 13 year-olds).

The front two some in Sunday's lineup was settled last weekend when Isaac's tomato-red Dodge led pole qualifying at 186 m.p.h. followed by A. J. Foyt in a Mercury at 184.

Three Hope teams traveled to the tournament—Farm Bureau and Tate Motor Co. in the Midget Division (11 years and under) and Moore Brothers in the Junior Division (12 and 13 year-olds).

In the semi-final round against Leachville the five starters, worn down by their first game, could only manage 21 points against 24 for Leachville. Tate Motor then played their third game of the day, edging past Fayetteville to win third place in the Midget Division. After their 25 to 23 victory, each player received a Junior Olympic Bronze Medal, similar in design to the ones given in the international Olympic Games.

The thirty-six boys and six coaches were able to make the trip due to the generosity of various local individuals and businesses. Everyone attending the tournament was impressed by the facilities that North Little Rock had available for tournament use. Games were played at two of the five newly constructed community centers, each containing a gymnasium, recreation room, arts and crafts room, family and health counseling rooms, and senior citizen areas. These facilities were built through grants received from the federal government under the same program to which Hope has submitted an application.

Cites Baseball Violations

By ALEX SACHARE
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Marvin Miller's charge that some baseball clubs are improperly using Phase II of President Nixon's wage-price controls to avoid paying merited salary increases was denied by major league executives contacted Thursday by The Associated Press.

There have been scattered attempts by some owners and general managers to allege that government regulations prevent them from giving increases," charged Miller, executive director of the Major League Baseball Players Association. He cited the St. Louis Cardinals and Atlanta Braves as two offenders, adding that "there and there there have been other cases."

But the baseball executives replied: "Who me?"

Eddie Robinson, minor league administrator who has been negotiating contracts for Atlanta: "We have been negotiating with the players just as in the past and have given raises in many cases."

Al Campanis, Los Angeles Dodgers' vice president: "We have never taken Phase II into consideration. We've given merited raises in the amounts we think they deserve."

John Quinn, Philadelphia Phillies' general manager: "We've been going on the same assumptions that we have in the past, that players get raises based on their performances last year."

But Miller insists it has happened, and he's not happy about it. He claimed the owners had agreed "that negotiations would continue as normal until we had specifics" regarding Phase II—and that some clubs were not honoring that agreement.

"We've had a few cases in which someone asks for a sizeable increase, and the owner says 'I can't pay you that much—if I give you that, I won't be able to give raises to any of the other players.'"

"That's nonsense."

He cited public statements made by Gussie Busch, owner of the Cardinals, and pointed to the Braves as another offender. Those clubs have a pair of superstars who remain unsigned on the eve of spring training—Joe Torre of the Cardinals, the National League's most valuable player, and Hank Aaron of the Braves.

Moran May Get Break

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Golf Writer
PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Paul Moran, who has had nothing but problems on the pro golf tour, gets a break today in the second round of the $125,000 Phoenix Open Golf Tournament—he gets to play on the same course again.

"I had real good first rounds in both the Crosby and the Hope," the stocky, 33-year-old Moran said Thursday after his five-under-par 66 gave him a share of the first-round lead.

"Then they switch me around on a different track, and maybe with different partners and I don't know what I'm doing and I missed the cut both times."

"At least, this time, I'll know where I am and what I'm doing."

The format for the Bing Crosby National Pro-Am and the Bob Hope Desert Classic call for the players to compete over three or four different courses for the first three or four days.

Moran was among the first-round leaders in both of those, before fading back and failing to qualify for the final round.

Some of the top names had their problems. George Archer and Billy Casper, among the pretourney favorites, were well back in the pack at 73. Defending champion Miller Barber had a 71.

Southern S. Keeps in AIC Running

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Al Flanagan hit two free throws with seven seconds left in overtime to give Southern State a 65-64 edge over State College of Arkansas in an Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference basketball game Thursday night.

Flanagan wound up with 18 points in pacing State. The Mulriders moved within half a game of league-leading Ouachita, which was idle Thursday night.

In other AIC action, Henderson whipped Arkansas College 83-67, Harding defeated College of the Ozarks 96-88 and Hendrix defeated Arkansas Tech 99-90.

Ozarks was forced into overtime with Harding when Freddie Dixon hit a jumper with 17 seconds remaining to tie the score at 79-79.

Dixon led all scorers with 30 points, followed by Bill Chism with 25.

John Reed, who fouled out with 8:31 left, led Ozarks with 29 points.

Danny Thomas pumped in 38 points to lead Hendrix. Larry Lowe and Tom Poole each added 19. Terry Hankton paced Tech with 27 points.

The field goal percentages told the story of the game as Hendrix hit 59 per cent of its shots and Tech only connecting on 35 per cent.

Sonics Get Another Star in Pro Cage Player Fight

SEATTLE (AP) — The Seattle SuperSonics of the National Basketball Association, already enriched by one player who jumped from the rival ABA, apparently are richer still Friday with the addition of another jumper, 7-foot rookie Jim McDaniels.

But a spokesman for the Carolina Cougars of the American Basketball Association, from whom McDaniels fled, said the team "wouldn't be too surprised if we remedied the situation."

The Cougars took the first legal steps towards that remedy with a suit filed in Los Angeles against an attorney.

The situation also roiled in McDaniels' alma mater, Western Kentucky University, which said it had no reason to believe McDaniels signed a pro contract while still playing collegiate basketball.

McDaniels, meanwhile, was to be on the basketball court for the Sonics tonight when they contest Golden State for second place in the NBA Pacific Division. The big center was not expected to play against the Warriors, but player-coach Len Wilkens said McDaniels likely would see action Sunday against Portland.

McDaniels, who has been averaging 26.8 points and 14 rebounds a game for the Cougars, declined to outline his reasons for quitting the ABA club.

The Sonics would say only that he signed a six-year pact. No other contract details were announced.

McDaniels joined Spencer Haywood as the second man to jump from the ABA to Seattle. Haywood, an all-star forward, emigrated to Seattle from Denver last year.

The Cougars went to court in Los Angeles, asking $1 million damages and an order stopping Los Angeles attorney Al Ross from allegedly interfering with McDaniels.

The Cougar suit contends the former Western Kentucky star first signed with the ABA club in November 1970. The six-year contract was for $1,357,000 in salary and a $50,000 bonus, with the salary to be paid over 25 years.

The suit also contends McDaniels signed a pro contract while still playing collegiate basketball.

Arkansan to Mississippi S.

STARKVILLE, Miss. (AP) — Mississippi State University's 1971-72 football grant-in-aid list rose to 32 with the signing of all-state halfback Tommy Fridell.

School officials said Thursday that Fridell has accepted a grant-in-aid football scholarship. He was twice an all-conference selection at West Helena, Ark., Central High School.

Fridell ran for 920 yards, averaging 4.7 yards per carry, and 10 touchdowns in 1971.

McDaniels wanted to renegotiate the contract to spread the salary over 15 years with an additional $50,000 for aggravation.

That suit spurred Western Kentucky Officials to issue a statement they had no reason to believe McDaniels signed the pro contract while still playing for them.

Danny S. Top Rated

HOT SPRING, Ark. (AP) — Danny S., top-weighted at 122 pounds with Larry Snyder aboard, heads a field of eight other three-year-olds in today's $6,500 feature race at Oaklawn Park.

Also in the allowance event at six furlongs, will be M. H. Van Berg Stable's Canadian Jeff and J. R. Garrouette's Model Husband. Both will carry 118 pounds.

Others in the field include Blue Spartan, 115; Captivity, 115; Mae Bob, 110; Richware 115, and Black Gem Black, 110.

Danny S. will be coming off a fourth-place finish in Saturday's $20,000 Hot Springs Handicap.

Elegant Heir, owned by Robert Ballis, swung to the outside going down the stretch and passed Fleet to Market in the final furlong to win the $10,000 feature purse Thursday at Oaklawn.

The seven-year-old gelding ran the mile and 70 yards in 1:42. The time was 1-5 second faster than his last effort on Feb. 10, when he beat Fleet to Market by three-quarters of a length.

As second choice, Elegant Heir paid $9.20, $4.20 and $3.20. Fleet to Market returned $3.40 and $2.60 as the favorite and W. A. Lofton's Jere Jet paid $3.20 to show.

Jockey Lonnie Ray rode a winning triple Thursday. His winners were Elegant Heir, Senorita Spy Song in the first and Tommy Riggs in the fourth. Danny Whited had a winning double aboard Weedy Rough in the third and Old Thunder in the sixth.

Senorita Spy Song in the first and Little Lynn in the second, Nos. 3 and 12, combined for a $120.60 daily double.

STAYING AHEAD
The last time UCLA's basketball team had a losing season was 1945-46, when the Bruins ran up an 8-16 record under coach Wilbur Johns.

The Marquette president said that, although Chones would be unable to continue his collegiate playing career, the Racine, Wis., native intended to get his college degree.

"I look forward to presenting Jim his bachelor's degree at a future Marquette commencement," he said.

Chones has averaged 20.6 points and 11.9 rebounds a game in leading second-ranked Marquette to 21 straight victories this season.

"We at Marquette wish Jim every success in his new venture," Raynor said. "Jim has represented the university well both on and off the court."

Blevins Defeated in District Tournament

In a quarterfinal game in the Area 13 B Senior Boys tournament at Blevins the Hornets, one of the favored, was edged by Oak Grove 79 to 77. In other games Bright Star defeated McNeil 54 to 53, Cale downed Magnolia Walker 89 to 76 and Emerson blasted Garland 91 to 37.

Games Friday will pair Bright Star and Cale at 7 p.m. and Oak Grove and Emerson at 8:15 p.m.

In a foul marred contest Blevins held a nine point lead in the second quarter before Oak Grove closed to within three points at the half-way mark. It was nip and tuck from there on until Oak Grove built a six point lead with only a minute to play and Blevins was unable to overcome.

Chester Mixon was high for Oak Grove with 20 points, Hopson had 18. Blevins' Jerry Phillips topped scorers with 27 points and Wayne Kimberlin tossed in 17. A total of 55 fouls were called in the contest.

The Bright Star-McNeil contest was a thriller all the way and free throws in the final seconds gave the game to the Tigers. Larry and Dwight Kelly had 17 each for the winners. Murray and Turner with 13 and 12 respectively, led the losers.

Cale was behind going into the final quarter by two points but quickly started hitting getting 12 straight to ice the contest. B. Allen got 29 and R. Young 21 for Cale. Lee Ellis had 20 and G. Harris 17 for the losing Walker squad.

Leading by only 39 to 25 at the half, Emerson really started clicking and built up a big lead. Reserves played the final period. L. Jamerson led the winners with 19 and A. Williams had 15. Garland's Davis led his team with nine points.

Nashville, Prescott Move to Semifinals

By BILL MOORE
Star Sports Writer
Two quarterfinal games last night in the 7A district tournament saw Prescott upend Ashdown, 66-50, in the first game and Nashville routed DeQueen, 49-27, sending both winners to the semifinals tonight.

Prescott took an early 4-0, lead in the first contest, only to see Ashdown wipe out the lead with three straight field goals for a 6-4 margin.

However, using the shooting of Angela Payne, the Wolverettes went back ahead for good to take a first quarter 15-10 lead, with three frames left.

Moving on through the second period, Prescott kept the margin of difference between four to six points for a while, until Pantherette Vickie Henderson sank six free shots while holding Prescott to only one point, as Ashdown trailed by only one, 22-21, with 50 seconds left in the half.

Hitting five more quick mashers, the Wolverettes held a narrow 27-25, margin at half-time, after Henderson popped the next at the buzzer for Ashdown's last two points.

During the third period, Prescott began to wear the Pantherettes down, and as the final period moved in to action, the Wolverettes held a 45-34 margin.

Gillis led the winners with 15, and Ellis hit 13.

Tonight in the semi-finals, the Stephens Roadrunners meet Prescott's Wolverettes and the Nashville Scrappers meet the Bradley Bears.

Knuckleball His Career

By TOM EMORY
Associated Press Sports Writer
A knuckleball can be a pitcher's trademark—but with Hoyt Wilhelm, it's more of a career.

The 48-year-old right-hander has spent his 30-year baseball career baffling opposing batters with his smooth delivery of the herky-jerky pitch. He gave notice that he's coming back for season No. 31 when he returned his contract to the Los Angeles Dodgers Thursday.

Wilhelm entered baseball in 1942, before 28 players on the Dodgers' spring training roster were born. He made the major leagues in 1952 with the New York Giants. In the intervening years he's pitched for the St. Louis Cardinals, Cleveland, Baltimore, Chicago White Sox, California, Atlanta and Chicago Cubs.

Along the way "The Knuck" has set a number of records with his longevity including most appearances by a pitcher, 1,064. But he also hurled a no-hitter in 1958, at the age of 35, and he has a career earned run average of 2.50, a major league record.

Steve Blass, the Pittsburgh hurler who beat the Baltimore Orioles twice in the 1971 World Series, has signed his 1972 contract and participated in team workouts Thursday.

Blass, a 29-year-old right-hander, was 15-8 last season with a 2.85 ERA.

Among the National League players signed Thursday were: third baseman Ron Cey, outfielder Willie Crawford, pitcher Sandy Vance and catcher Steve Yeager, Dodgers; pitcher Billy Wilson, Philadelphia; outfielder Bobby Bonds, San Francisco; and pitcher Ernie McAnally, Montreal.

American League players signed included: pitchers Mel Stottlemyre, Fritz Peterson and Jim Magnuson, New York Yankees; infielder Lenny Randle and outfielder Ellie Maddox, Texas; infielders Buddy Bell and Ted Ford and pitchers Bob Kaiser and Terry Ley, Cleveland; and pitchers Mike Hedlund and Jim Rooker, first basemen John Mayberry and Gail Hopkins and outfielder Joe Keough, Kansas City.

Independent League Play

Here are the results of games at Guernsey Gym: In the first game at 7:00 p.m. Perry's Truck Stop downed Industrial Products by the score of 87 to 74. Massanelli and Loe were the leading scorers for the winners with 20 and 18. Livingston had 26, and Dougan sank 18 for the losers. In the second game at 9:00 p.m. Anderson-Frazier defeated Davis Discount 127 to 70. Leading scorers for Anderson-Frazier were Williamson and Smith with 45 and 26 respectively. Jackson pumped in 30, and Turner shot 15 for the losers.

Next games are scheduled for Friday, February 18, when Young American plays ZECO at 7:00 o'clock, and at 9:00 p.m. Butane Gas takes on Dairy Queen.

Standings

Knicks Best at Both Ends

CHICAGO (AP) — If that old adage holds true—"It's not whether you win or lose but how you play the game"—then the New York Knicks had the best of both ends of it Thursday night against the Chicago Bulls.

The Knicks won, 102-99, and how they played the game was the whole story.

In the only other NBA game, Milwaukee routed Cincinnati, 111-97, while in the only American Basketball Association game of the night, Carolina whipped Virginia 145-122.

With some court-side gambling from coach Red Holtzman, the Knicks boomed back from a 23-point deficit to win the game with only 25 seconds showing on the clock in an overtime period.

"We were losing by more than 20 points early in the third quarter," said Holtzman, "so I decided I had better start gambling or else it was all over."

Holtzman's gamble was to sacrifice the height for a speedy defense. He pulled Bill Bradley from his forward position and substituted Dean Meminger, giving the Knicks three guards on the floor, including Walt Frazier and Earl Monroe.

"We had to gamble and play the Bulls tight," Holtzman added, "and not give them any good shots. We decided to take a lot of long shots and hope that Dave DeBusschere and Jerry Lucas would take care of any rebounds."

The gamble paid off. DeBusschere and Lucas combined to haul down 26 shots from the boards, half the home team's total for the night, while holding the Bulls' offense to 11 points in the fourth quarter.

The game was tied at 90-all at the end of regulation and the two teams played on even terms throughout most of the overtime period.

With 25 seconds remaining, and the score knotted again at 99-98, DeBusschere hit a short jumper to put the Knicks in the lead for good. A free throw by the Bulls and two by New York's Dick Barnett ended the scoring.

Kareem Abdul Jabbar poured in 34 points and grabbed 14 rebounds to power the Bucks past the Royals. Milwaukee jumped off to a 30-22 first period lead, moved ahead 50-43 at the half, then coasted home.

Lucius Allen added 23 points for the Bucks and Bob Danford had 18. Nate Archibald led Cincinnati with 30 points, while centers Sam Lacey and Jim Fox netted 16 apiece. It was Cincinnati's seventh straight loss.

The Cougars, winning their third game in four outings since rookie center Jim McDaniel's jump-started the club, broke the game open by outscoring Virginia 18-4 in one surge during the first quarter.

Joe Caldwell and Stew Johnson scored 20 points apiece for Carolina. Johnson and rookie Tom Ownes, sharing McDaniel's accustomed pivot spot, combined for 40 points and 25 rebounds.

BEST RECEIVER

Tom Reynolds of San Diego State averaged 6.7 pass receptions per game to lead the nation's major college receivers. Reynolds, who caught 67 passes for 1,070 yards, had nearly a yard advantage on second-place Brian Babin of the Citadel, who finished at 5.8.

February is Boy Scout Anniversary Month. Organized in 1910, the Boy Scouts of America are celebrating their 62nd year.

On Saturday, February 12, Scouts of Troop 91, under the leadership of Scoutmaster Olen Overturf and sponsored by Hope Lions Club, celebrated with a service project. The Troop bus was parked downtown and the Scouts went throughout the downtown area distributing safe driving booklets. These boys have attended the Defensive Drivers class under the direction of Sgt. Ray Davis of the Arkansas State Police, and are vitally interested in auto safety.

Scouts taking part in Saturday's event were Dwight Stone, Bryan Cox, Robin Lee, Britt Monte, David Berry, Frank Roy, Sandy Huckabee, and Steve Cox.

Lamar Brings Confusion

By BERT ROSENTHAL
Associated Press Sports Writer

College basketball fans in Beaumont, Tex. had to be confused.

They were rooting for Lamar ... and they were getting beaten by Lamar.

The Beaumont crowd, cheering every point by its hometown team, Lamar University, watched wistfully Thursday night as Southwestern Louisiana's Dwight Lamar, the nation's leading scorer, fired in 51 points, propelling the Ragin' Cajuns to a 119-106 victory over the Cardinals.

The triumph enabled the 12th ranked Ragin' Cajuns to clinch at least a tie for the Southland Conference title with an 8-0 record. They are 19-2 over-all and making a strong bid for an independent berth in the NCAA tournament or a spot in the National Invitation Tournament.

Southwestern Louisiana trailed by as many as 13 points in the first half, before pulling ahead 52-48 at intermission. But the Ragin' Cajuns fell behind again in the second half and didn't go ahead for good until one minute remained, when Lamar hit a 25-foot shot.

Sophomore center Roy Ebron added 26 points for USL. Mike Hughes scored 30 for Lamar University.

Meanwhile, 18th ranked Memphis State gained a tie with idle St. Louis for second place in the Missouri Valley Conference, downing Bradley 70-59 for its seventh league victory in nine games. The Tigers, winners of 11 of their last 12 games and 16-5 over-all were led by Larry Finch's 28 points, 24 in the first half.

Bradley tried a first-half slowdown, which surprised Memphis State Coach Gene Bartow.

"They beat us by 20 points up there (Peoria, Ill.) and come in here (Memphis) and stall," said Bartow. "That's hard to figure. I know Coach Joe Stowell knows his personnel and did to win."

The No. 9 team, Long Beach State, subdued San Jose State 85-51.

The victory enabled Long Beach State to move back into first place in the Pacific Coast Athletic Association race. Chuck Terry topped the 49ers with 26 points.

In other major games: Steve Bracey's 35 points and Jim Clesson's 28 paced Tulsa to a 95-87 triumph over West Texas; Bob Davis' career high 31 points and 16 rebounds helped Big Sky Conference leader Weber State beat Montana State 68-53; Dwight Davis had 30 points and 13 rebounds as Houston whipped Centenary 93-82; George Washington's Ron Nunn scored 14 points for a career total of 1,001 as GW walloped Rochester 110-77, and Bob Sherwin's 36 points sparked Army

China Christianity Goes on and Off

By GEORGE W. CORNELL

AP Religion Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Like a slowly blinking light, Christianity in China repeatedly has gone off and on again over the centuries. While it's now in a dark phase, questions arise whether the new diplomatic contacts may eventually allow it to glow again.

Church experts are convinced that if it does, even in the long run, it won't be in the old way, as a Westernized import.

"If the Chinese are going to be given a new opportunity to hear the faith, it's not going to be from Westerners, but from the Chinese themselves," says the Rev. Dr. Arthur F. Glasser, dean of the school of World Missions at Fuller Theological Seminary, Pasadena, Calif.

While some groups have felt that President Nixon's visit, coupled with China's entry into the United Nations, may soon clear the way for resumption of missionary activity in China, experienced hands there strongly doubt it.

To see the trip as a forerunner to any "dramatic opportunities for Christian witness is to put faith in fantasy," says the Rev. Dr. M.E. Loewen, a one-time China missionary and now director of the International Religious Liberty Association in Washington, D. C.

Nevertheless, there have been some faint signs of possible changes in China's blanket suppression of organized religious life.

These were cited recently by the Rev. Raymond L. Whitehead, a China specialist of the National Council of Churches, who recently became the first American clergyman to visit mainland China since the Bamboo curtain fell 20 years ago.

He said he had heard that the Theological School in Nanking eventually would be reopened, and it "would not be too much to expect that Christian institutions and leaders will soon appear again" among the Chinese themselves.

In the past, the faith recurrently has been brought into the country from the outside, but each time, it finally has gone under or been driven out.

"The pattern has been to open the door to Christianity for a while and then throw it out," says Dr. Glasser, 57, who served in China five years up to 1951. "It has happened again and again."

Four different times, the door was opened or reopened, then closed. "The question is," Dr. Glasser added in an interview, "will there be a fifth time?"

Legend has it that Jesus' apostle Thomas first brought word of Christianity to China, but this has no historical basis. From 700 to 950 A. D., Syrians took a highly spiritualized "Nestorian" form of Christianity to China, but it was extinct by 1,000 A. D. In the 13th and 14th century Franciscans spread congregations there, but were driven out.

In the 16th and 17th century, the Jesuits brought a vigorous Christian movement into China, but it, too, faltered under pressures, leaving a remnant.

Then came the 19th century surge of China mission activity by Roman Catholics and Protestants. It had grown to three million Chinese Catholics and one million Protestants, before the Communist takeover of 1948 gradually smothered it. The purges of 1966 wiped out its last organizational vestiges.

"Some people still have hope of finding 'crypt' Christians in China, but while this is possible, I'm not overly optimistic about it," says the Rev. William L. Richardson, a one-time China missionary of the Maryknoll, N.Y., Catholic order.

Dr. Glasser, whose school has students from 41 countries, including Chinese, said there is little chance of Western clergy working in China again, but Christianity may re-emerge through Chinese themselves and lay technicians from the West with strong Christian convictions.

He added that small groups of Christians, meeting privately in homes, are reported still continuing in China, but institutionally, the church does not exist.

If it is to revive, he said, it will be primarily as a "lay movement, on a highly informal basis."

BE PARTNERS WITH GOD SUPPORT HIS CHURCH

His Prayer for The Nation

In his first inaugural address, George Washington asked God to help him to be a good, successful president:

"Such being the impressions under which I have, in obedience to the public summons, repaired to the present stature, it would be particularly improper to omit in this first official act my fervent supplications to that Almighty Being who rules over the universe, who presides in the councils of nations, and whose providential acts can supply every human defect, that His benediction may consecrate to the liberties and happiness of the people of the United States a government instituted by themselves for these essential purposes, and may enable every instrument employed in its administration to execute with success the functions allotted to his charge."

Later in life, he reaffirmed his faith in the wisdom of God by saying: "The will of Heaven is not to be controverted or scrutinized by the children of this world. It therefore becometh the creatures of it to submit to the will of the Creator, whether it be to prolong or to shorten the number of our days, to bless them in health, or afflict them with pain."

U.S. Soviet Trade May Hinge on Debt Pact

By LEWIS GULICK
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A major block to expanding U.S.-Soviet trade will be wiped out if the United States and the Soviet Union agree in forthcoming negotiations to settle Moscow's World War II lend-lease debt.

Soviet interest in reopening the long-dormant negotiations was announced by the State Department Thursday. The talks are expected to get under way here shortly.

The two nations were a half-billion dollars apart when lend-lease settlement negotiations broke off 12 years ago. The United States was claiming an $800-million IOU outstanding on $10.8 billion worth of U.S. goods sent to Russia in World War II, and the Soviets were offering $300 million.

The new Soviet initiative was seen here as a sign of Moscow interest in access to America's technology and mass market, timed to sweeten the atmosphere for President Nixon's journey to Russia in May.

State Department spokesman Charles Bray said a Soviet deputy minister of foreign trade, Anatoly Manzhulo, signaled Kremlin readiness for lend-lease settlement talks when he was in Washington last month. Kremlin failure to settle the debt has been a sticking point in refusal by Congress to grant Russia the most-favored-nation trade treatment accorded most countries, and in the refusal of Export-Import Bank credits for U.S. sales to the Soviet Union.

Rep. William S. Moorhead, D-Pa., hailed the Soviet willingness to reopen the talks as "a major breakthrough in the improvement of Soviet-American relations."

Moorhead's House foreign operations and government information subcommittee slated hearings today on collection of delinquent international debts owed to the United States by many foreign countries, including the Soviet Union.

Celebs Turn Out For BYOG Party

By ERNESTINE GUGLIELMO

TRASH BASH—There they were, the Vanderbilts, Fords, David Frost, Faye Dunaway, Congressman Passanante and various stars, socialites and politicians in stuffy formal attire toting their garbage bags. All for a better world.

It was a special party, given by Bradley Pierce, one of New York's finest party flingers, in which guests were invited to bring along their garbage, plain old foul garbage.

The black tie affair, which boasted a long and prominent guest list, celebrated the efforts of the 11th Hour News, a company promoting the ecology movement. They've issued postcards and stickers capturing the ecology problem through pictures. The idea is to stick a stamp on your gas bill, or send a postcard to your favorite politician. All for the application of subtle pressure.

New York City not only provided the garbage, it donated a whole garbage truck, which was parked outside the Boathouse Club on the East Side, awaiting deposits from the guests. How gloriously undignified.

YOUNG, GIFTED AND BLACK—Yvonne Westbrook looks harmless. With her easy smile, tame Afro and unaffected speeches of her political inexperience, it's not likely that she could shake up a town and give seasoned politicians an extra wrinkle or two. But that's what she's doing.

Yvonne Westbrook, a freshman at the University of San Francisco, pioneered as the first 18-year-old to project herself toward public office in California. She, like many others, got tired of being on committees where suggested proposals have reached boards and gotten so knotted by bureaucratic nitpicking that the problems have been forgotten or lost in winding roads to nowhere.

So Yvonne, surrounded herself with advisers and staff, began what she called "The New Breed" campaign, run for the San Francisco board of supervisors and came close to winning. But it was only a technical defeat. She lost the election, but gained wide support and recognition. Now when she appears at a meeting she's invited to speak. Politicians are consulting her. Yvonne plans to run again in two years and this time she's determined to win it.

FM & AM—A few years ago comedian George Carlin looked like a bank teller or an IBM salesman. George Carlin had such a clean cut a preacher could use his material for Sunday sermons. But he's changed both in appearance and style. Now sporting a scruffy beard and longer hair, he's coming off more like Leney Bruce. His latest album "FM & AM" splits his routine from one side to the other. On AM there's Divorce Game, Ed Sullivan Self-Taught and Let's Make a Deal, digging into some vulnerable favorites. On the FM side there's Shoot, Sex in Commercials, and Drugs.

Jackie Takes Witness Stand

By ELIZABETH BASSETT

Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis' eyes flashed from lawyer to lawyer to judge as hour after hour of legal wrangling interrupted her first appearance on a witness stand.

Poised as only a woman who is at home almost everywhere could be, she sat bolt upright in a black knit Chanel suit—which she wore both Wednesday and Thursday—and clasped her hands.

Only occasionally did she lose her serious mien, either to rest spiritedly to a question or to smile gratefully when Judge Irving Ben Cooper, who is hearing the case without jury, gave her guidance. Ten years ago, Cooper was appointed to the bench by President John F. Kennedy, Mrs. Onassis' first husband.

Mrs. Onassis is being sued by freelance photographer Ronald E. Galella for $1.3 million. Galella claims the 42-year-old former first lady and Secret Service agents guarding her children interfere with his picture taking.

She and the agents claim in a countersuit that Galella employs "demonic surveillance," and they have asked for a permanent injunction to make the cameraman keep his distance.

Laughter erupted in the courtroom when she testified that she is not aware she is a public figure. Even Mrs. Onassis managed a grin.

"Aren't you aware the public has a great interest in your doings ... in your comings and going and who you are ... that there is curiosity about your behavior, the clothes you wear and your family?" Galella's lawyer asked.

"No, sir," she responded politely.

Galella's lawyer, Alfred S. Julien, tried to show that Mrs. Onassis purposely crossed his client by putting on sunglasses whenever she saw him.

"Do you wear your sunglasses all the time in the daytime?" he asked.

"Sometimes," she replied.

"Not all the time?" he bore in.

"Not when it's raining," she said.

When Galella took the stand, he complained that Mrs. Onassis' sunglasses made the pictures less salable.

He admitted he has sold one sunglasses picture but it was "inside." Had she not wore glasses it could have been a cover, he griped.

Mrs. Onassis, sitting with her lawyers, laughed quietly, covering her mouth with a hand.

That Mrs. Onassis has lived a special life was evident. U.S. marshals ushered her into an elevator reserved for her; Galella fought his way into the one crowded with court onlookers.

Gen. John J. Pershing, with the rank of General of the Armies of the United States, held the highest rank ever given an American Army officer.

Connally to Explain and Defend Economic Policies

By ROBERT L. CAMPBELL

Associated Press Writer
Secretary of the Treasury John B. Connally, a Democrat, says he will be "articulating, explaining and perhaps defending" the economic policies of the Nixon administration during this fall's campaign.

"I am certainly going to do that in as objective and non-partisan a way as I can and if it is interpreted as being partisan, I can't help it," Connally said Thursday in a speech to the Washington Press Club.

Some Democratic officials have speculated Connally will leave the Nixon administration soon before the campaign heats up to avoid having to campaign against his own party.

Connally told the press club gathering that he didn't know exactly what he would do.

"At some point I'll have to face up to it," he said, adding that he has been so busy with Phase II and international money issues that he hasn't been able to decide.

Meanwhile, President Nixon left for Communist China amid criticism from political opponents.

Indiana Sen. Vance Hartke, a contender for the Democratic nomination, said Sen. Edmund S. Muskie of Maine ought to take a public stand on the potential impact of Nixon's trip on the U.S. employment.

"Now that the President is on the verge of opening the gate to a whole new flood of goods produced by Communist slave labor, I think Muskie has an obligation to the voters to take a stand on something meaningful to American wage earners," Hartke said.

Hartke made the comments in a statement released in New Hampshire where he is campaigning for the March 7 Democratic primary in which Muskie is the acknowledged front-runner.

Also in New Hampshire was Rep. Paul N. McCloskey, R-Calif., opposing Nixon on an anti-war platform, who said the President's trip is a "gimmick" to divert attention from domestic problems.

They (the Chinese) are going to take advantage of this visit," McCloskey said in a radio interview. "They're going to drop Mr. Nixon's trousers around his ankles and he may never even know it. The problems are right here at home, in the West, not in China."

Democratic Sen. Henry A. Jackson of Washington, however, wished the President well. "I want to see the President succeed," Jackson said in Miami Beach where he met with the AFL-CIO leaders. "I hope the President of the United States will be able to announce that the Chinese are going to help in Hanoi to bring our prisoners of war out and to bring all shooting to an end so all killing will stop."

DR. LAWRENCE E. LAMB Bleeding Bowels Call for Checkup

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb — I read in your column about the person who was having blood in the stools and his doctor said he had a nervous stomach. That person's symptoms parallel mine to the "T." Pain in the left side, mucus in the stool, blood seemingly from the rectum. I have experienced it over many years, but I know the answer to my problem. It is coffee. Whenever I have myself in hand and go without it, the symptoms disappear. Coffee upsets my entire lower intestinal tract to the point where I feel sick, bloated, sluggish and irritable. I have gone through many X rays, bottles of medicine, spells of bland diet, but after years of it and much worry, I can state with certainty that coffee is the culprit. There is no doubt but that it is harmful, not only in keeping people awake. In my case it certainly attacks the lining of the colon. I am otherwise a healthy and strong person. I wonder how many people there are who are similarly affected by coffee without knowing what causes their trouble.

Dear Reader — You are right in saying that coffee can cause indigestion. It certainly is responsible for burning in the stomach and hyperactivity of the bowels and contributes to irritable bowel problems. I have seen a lot of patients who have been washing down tranquilizers with coffee, when what they really need to do is throw away both.

While I agree with you, I still must caution readers that unexplained bleeding from the bowels calls for a prompt medical examination. Too often the first sign of cancer of the bowel is bleeding. It is very simple to have an examination and no one should ignore bleeding from the rectum. Let your doctor decide whether it is important or not, but you don't need to go to the doctor to quit drinking coffee. Anybody who is having indigestion should stop drinking coffee and all cola drinks or other beverages that contain caffeine. This, by the way, includes tea.

Dear Dr. Lamb — I would like to have you compare the amount of caffeine in coffee, tea and colas. I know that teen-agers like to drink colas and wondered if this is harmful in the long run.

Dear Reader—The amount of caffeine in coffee and tea depends on how it is brewed. Some people like it strong and some people like it weak. As a general rule, coffee contains the most caffeine, tea about half as much as coffee and cola drinks about one-fourth as much as a cup of average-strength coffee.

More Fires at Pine Bluff

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Pine Bluff police and firemen today were investigating three firebombings that occurred in the city Thursday night.

Firemen said what appeared to be molotov cocktails were thrown at the Texaco and American Oil Co. bulk plants, but neither device exploded and there was no damage.

A third firebomb was tossed through a front window at the residence of Richard Mosley, who lives in the Belmont subdivision, firemen said.

The firebomb exploded in Mosley's living room, causing moderate damage to the house. Mosley was not injured.

Meanwhile, an investigation continued in an attempt to determine the causes of five fires here Wednesday night.

Two of the fires were in vacant houses on the east side of town in a black neighborhood, and the others were at a vacant building near the north edge of town, at a warehouse of the North Cedar Lumber Co. and at the women's dormitory at Arkansas AM&N College.
